Ny Kirree Fo Naghtey—Translation

*After a winter of snow-fall and spring-time of frost,
The young lambs were living, but the old sheep were lost.*

Chorus:

*O rise up, my shepherds, and go to the hill,
The sheep are 'neath snow as deep as can be.*

There are sheep in the Laggan, goats and sheep on Oliean Rea, Wild sheep in Coon-y-Eluistey that will ne'er come away.

*There's a yearling for Christmas and for Easter there's two,
And two or three more for the time when I'm through.*

*The Bison Men would like to thank you all, once again, for your continuing support throughout this season, seasons past,
and seasons to come.*

It is always a pleasure and an honor to sing for you, and share our love of choral music with you.

Dates to note:

A Feeste of Christmas—Saturday December 2 in the Great Hall at University College
